

SOURCES CONSULTED

This book is based largely on primary sources, including maps, city directories, newspapers, photographs, manuscripts, oral histories, neighborhood newsletters, architectural drawings, lectures, a master's thesis, promotional publications of real estate development companies, letters, personal reminiscences, Town of Chevy Chase records, minutes, and building permits, and material compiled by religious, civic, and business associations.

Not all the sources used by individual authors are listed in this bibliography. Additional information on sources is filed in the collections of the Town of Chevy Chase History Committee. Inquiries should be addressed to the Town Office.

For the benefit of those wishing to do further research on local history, an abbreviation after the bibliographic citation indicates the repository of certain original source materials or copies of those materials, as follows:
